

The Women I see...

I see women of aspiration who know they are loved, accepted and valued by their God who have:

- ♥ No axes to grind,
- ♥ No things to prove,
- ♥ No need to compete,
- ♥ No need to seek attention,

but know that they have the attention of Christ in a secure relationship with Him. They know God loves them as His own daughter, in a purely, wonderful way unlike any earthly father they have known.

I see women who know the Holy Spirit is in them as their comforter, healer, protector, guide, saviour, Lord and friend.

I see a group of women that are so secure in their relationship with God and therefore each other that they reach out and have a heart for others with an abundance of love and compassion to give to others unconditionally.

I see women who live for something beyond themselves, just like their saviour lived for the father's purpose.

I see women that live for the purpose of Christ and to do His will.

I see women who don't wait for Christ to come but are Christ in their homes:

- ♥ Gentle
- ♥ Self controlled
- ♥ Christ reliant
- ♥ Bold in Faith
- ♥ Hope for the best
- ♥ Expect the best of people
- ♥ Not quarrelsome
- ♥ Teachable
- ♥ Peaceable
- ♥ Faith loving
- ♥ Full of hope
- ♥ Faithful
- ♥ Patient
- ♥ Long suffering
- ♥ Not quick to Judge
- ♥ Gracious
- ♥ Humble
- ♥ Not rude or opinionated John 7:18

In other words, women who are more interested in faith, hope and love.

I see women that are a safe place like lambs amongst a world of ravenous wolves. I see women who know their protector, know God as their way maker, women who don't hold resentment and fight each other, women who don't devour or lord it over others with manipulation and control.

The Women I see...

I see women that don't cut others with their words, that don't entertain jealousy, hurtful or hateful thoughts of others. I see women who speak well of others and don't allow unkind words to cross their lips.

The women I see who 'know whom they have believed in and are persuaded that He is able to keep that which they've committed to Him' until that day...of His return. (2 Tim 1:12)

I see a group of women who 'live the life' and inspire and minister the life of Christ today – being the very aroma of Christ everywhere they go!

These women I see are us... 'Living the life' - His life in us.
